

Nét số thẳng

Nét ngang

The page contains a large grid for handwriting practice. The grid is composed of 10 columns and 20 rows. Each row is divided into three horizontal sections by solid lines. The top section is the tallest, the middle section is shorter, and the bottom section is the shortest. In the middle section of each row, there are two vertical dotted lines that serve as guides for letter height. The grid is intended for practicing the horizontal stroke (nét ngang) of letters.

Nét xiên trái

The page contains a large grid for handwriting practice. The grid is 20 columns wide and 30 rows high. Each row contains a small slanted line (the 'left slanted stroke') at the beginning, followed by a series of dots for tracing. The slanted lines are positioned at the start of each row, and the dots are placed at regular intervals across the grid.

Nét xiên phải

The image shows a handwriting practice sheet. At the top, there is a header with the text 'Họ và tên: Lớp: 1A...' followed by a horizontal line. Below this is the title 'Nét xiên phải' in a bold, serif font. The main body of the page is a large grid. The grid consists of 12 columns and 20 rows. The first column contains 12 slanted lines (nét xiên phải) for tracing. The rest of the grid is empty for independent practice.

Nét móc trên

The image shows a handwriting practice sheet for the top hook stroke (nét móc trên). It features a grid of 12 rows and 8 columns. Each row begins with a small hook symbol (n) on the left, followed by a dotted version of the same symbol for tracing. The remaining space in each row is left blank for independent practice.

Nét móc dưới

A large grid for handwriting practice. The grid is 12 columns wide and 20 rows high. The first row contains eight cursive lowercase 'l' characters, each with a small arrow indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The second row contains eight more cursive lowercase 'l' characters, also with stroke order arrows. The remaining 18 rows of the grid are empty, providing space for independent practice of the cursive letter 'l'.

Nét móc hai đầu

The image shows a handwriting practice sheet for the cursive letter 'n' with two hooks. It features a grid of 13 rows and 8 columns. The first three rows are completely filled with the cursive letter 'n'. The remaining ten rows have the letter 'n' only in the first column, with the rest of the cells being empty for practice.

Nét cong trái

A large grid for handwriting practice. The grid consists of 13 rows and 8 columns. Each row starts with a cursive letter 'C' on the left side. The first three rows show the letter 'C' written in a dotted style for tracing. The remaining ten rows show the letter 'C' written in a solid style, with a small dot at the top of the letter indicating the starting point for the stroke. The grid is designed to help students practice the shape and formation of the cursive letter 'C'.

Nét cong phải

A large grid for handwriting practice. The grid is composed of 12 columns and 13 rows. The first row contains eight dotted cursive 'o' characters, one in each of the first eight columns. The second row contains eight dotted cursive 'o' characters, one in each of the first eight columns. The third row contains eight dotted cursive 'o' characters, one in each of the first eight columns. The remaining ten rows (rows 4 through 13) each contain a single dotted cursive 'o' character in the first column, followed by a horizontal dotted line across the rest of the row, indicating the path for writing the letter.

Nét cong kín

A large grid for handwriting practice. The grid is composed of 15 vertical columns and 15 horizontal rows. The first three rows are pre-filled with the cursive letter 'o' for tracing. Each row contains eight 'o's, with the first one being solid and the others being dashed. The remaining 12 rows are empty, each starting with a solid 'o' on the far left, followed by a vertical dotted line that serves as a guide for the letter's width and height. The rest of each row is blank for independent practice.

Nét khuyết trên

A handwriting practice grid for the cursive letter 'l'. The grid consists of 12 columns and 12 rows. The first row contains eight cursive 'l' characters, each with a small arrow at the top indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The second row contains eight more cursive 'l' characters, also with arrows. The third row contains eight more cursive 'l' characters, also with arrows. The remaining nine rows (rows 4 through 12) each contain a single cursive 'l' character in the first column, with arrows, and the rest of the row is empty for practice.

Nét khuyết dưới

A handwriting practice grid for the cursive letter 'd'. The grid consists of 12 columns and 13 rows. The first row contains eight 'd' characters, each with a small arrow indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The second row contains eight 'd' characters, each with a small arrow indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The third row contains eight 'd' characters, each with a small arrow indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The remaining ten rows (rows 4 through 13) each contain a single 'd' character in the first column, with a small arrow indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The rest of the grid is empty for practice.

Nét khuyết kép

The image shows a handwriting practice sheet on a grid. The title is "Nét khuyết kép". The first column contains 15 solid black examples of the double hook stroke. The next three columns (2, 3, 4) each contain 3 rows of light gray dashed examples. The remaining seven columns (5-10) are empty for practice.

Nét thắt

A large grid for handwriting practice. The grid consists of 13 rows and 12 columns. Each row begins with a cursive letter 'j' in the first column, followed by eight empty columns for practice. The first row contains eight 'j's, while the remaining rows contain only one 'j' at the start of each row. The grid is designed to help students learn the stroke order and placement of the letter 'j' in cursive script.

Nét xoắn

A handwriting practice sheet for the cursive letter 'a'. The page features a grid of 13 rows. The first three rows each contain eight examples of the letter 'a' written in a consistent cursive style. The remaining ten rows each contain a single example of the letter 'a' on the far left, followed by empty space for independent practice. The grid is composed of solid vertical lines and dotted horizontal lines.

The page contains a large grid for handwriting practice. The grid is composed of vertical lines and horizontal lines, with a dotted line in the middle of each row to serve as a guide for letter height. The letters 'a' and 'd' are printed in a cursive style at the beginning of each row. The first row contains eight 'a's. The second through sixth rows each contain one 'a' followed by seven empty spaces. The seventh row contains eight 'd's. The eighth through twelfth rows each contain one 'd' followed by seven empty spaces.

The page contains a large grid for handwriting practice. The grid is divided into two main sections. The top section is for the lowercase letter 'q'. It consists of 8 columns. The first column contains 6 solid 'q' characters. The remaining 7 columns each contain a dotted 'q' character at the top, with a small dot indicating the starting point for the counter-clockwise stroke. The bottom section is for the lowercase letter 'g'. It also consists of 8 columns. The first column contains 6 solid 'g' characters. The remaining 7 columns each contain a dotted 'g' character at the top, with a small dot indicating the starting point for the counter-clockwise stroke. The grid lines are solid, while the letters and dots are dotted.
